

WE HELP OURSELVES (WHOS)

NEW BEGINNINGS

WHOS New Beginnings is a women's only AOD residential service, located within the beautiful grounds of Broughton Hall Lilyfield. Information on WHOS services can be found at www.whos.com.au.

We are looking for a motivated and enthusiastic woman to fill this part time AOD position.

Being a female is a genuine occupational qualification under Section 31 of the NSW Anti- Discrimination Act.

Criteria:

- Minimum Certificate IV in AOD/Community Services/Mental Health or relevant qualification
- Knowledge of and/or experience in working with AOD clients.
- A desire to work with women and an understanding of their related issues.
- Available to work evening and weekend shifts as required.
- Current Drivers Licence
- Current First Aid Certificate/CPR or willingness to obtain same
- Knowledge of the Therapeutic Community model
- Group work skills.
- Knowledge and understanding of harm minimisation.
- Experience liaising with stakeholders such as GP's/medical clinics, withdrawal management services, community services and allied referral agencies.

What we offer:

- Salary sacrificing
- Free onsite parking
- Employee Assistance Program
- Opportunity for training and career development
- Day, evening, and weekend shifts
- A supportive team environment
- A diverse and inclusive workplace
- Group supervision.

Please note you must have the right to work in Australia and provide a current National Police clearance.

Remuneration is negotiable based on qualifications and experience equivalent to SCHADSI Award Level 4. Salary sacrificing is available.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are encouraged to apply.

To be considered for this position please send your CV, with a cover letter addressing the selection criteria to Alexa Robles via e-mail: alexa.robles@whos.com.au. Closing date - 30th January 2025

Previous applicants need not reapply